

Do you want to know about my best day ever? Well, it was one summer day 2 years ago when we went to Mall of America. First we had to check into our hotel. Tyler and I zipped to the elevator as fast as cheetas. Our Mom and Dad kept telling us to slow down.

Us running to the elevator.

We got to the elevator really fast. We were so excited we couldn't slow down. Then we got to our hotel room. Tyler found a room with 2 bunk beds in it! It was amazing!

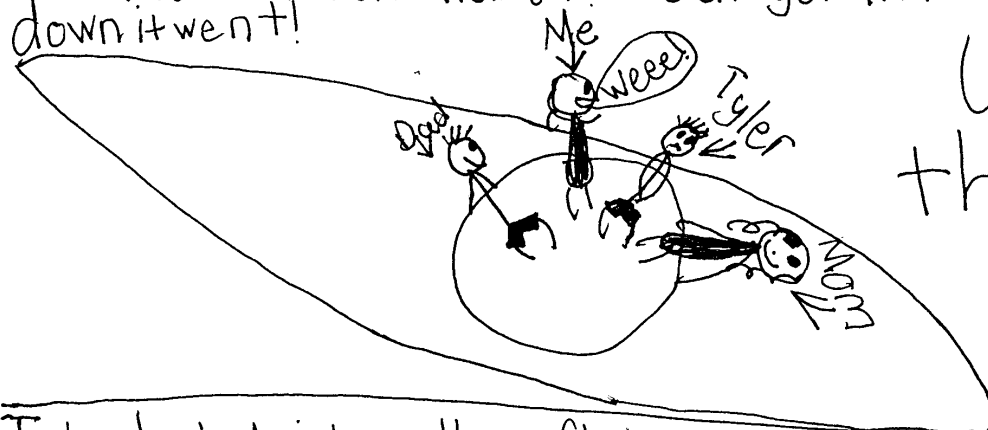

The bunkbed room

We unloaded our suitcases and put our swim suits on. Then we headed to the waterpark. The waterpark was humongous! Tyler ran to the pool as quick as a cricket. I followed and jumped in! The water was really warm.

Us running to the pool.

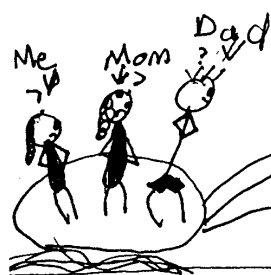

After a few minutes we went to the family raft ride. The family raft ride went out of the building! It was the biggest raft ride I had ever went on! We all got into the raft and down it went!

Us on the raft.

Tyler looked sick on the raft, but when he was about to scream the raft was at the bottom. He got off as soon as the raft stopped!

Tyler getting out of the raft

I am NOT going on that again!

It was hilarious. After an hour we left the waterpark, and went back to our room. We got our dry clothes on and headed to the mall. First, we looked around the mall. It was enormous! Then we went to the amusement park in the middle of the mall. It was also enormous! We rode a lot of rides. And that was my best day ever.

Our family on a roller coaster

